11 relating to school attendance in elementary and secondary education, is amended by revising
12 Code Section 20-2-690.1, relating to mandatory education for children, as follows:

13 "20-2-690.1.

14 (a) Mandatory attendance in a public school, private school, or home school program shall 15 be required for children between their sixth and sixteenth birthdays. Such mandatory 16 attendance shall not be required where the child has successfully completed all 17 requirements for a high school diploma. Any parent, guardian, or other person having 18 control or charge of any child or children subject to mandatory attendance pursuant to this 19 subsection who becomes a new resident of a local school system in this state during the 20 academic year of such school system shall within 10 school days of such new residency

22 that meets the requirements for a public school, a private school, or a home study program.

24 of this Code section.
25

26 (b) Every parent, guardian, or other person residing within this state having control or 27 charge of any child or children during the ages of mandatory attendance as required in 28 subsection (a) of this Code section shall enroll and send such child or children to a public 29 school, a private school, or a home study program that meets the requirements for a public 30 school, a private school, or a home study program; and such child shall be responsible for 31 ~~enrolling in and~~ attending a public school, a private school, or a home study program that 32 meets the requirements for a public school, a private school, or a home study program 33 under such penalty for noncompliance with this subsection as is provided in Chapter 11 of 34 Title 15, unless the child's failure to enroll and attend is caused by the child's parent, 35 guardian, or other person, in which case the parent, guardian, or other person alone shall 36 be responsible; provided, however, that tests and physical exams for military service and 37 the National Guard and such other approved absences as provided for by law or by the 38 local board of education shall be excused absences. The requirements of this subsection 39 shall apply to a child during the ages of mandatory attendance as required in subsection (a)

 43 regardless of whether such child has been suspended or expelled from another public 44 school program by that local board of education or its delegate, and to the parent, guardian, 45 or other person residing in this state who has control or charge of such child. Nothing in 46 this Code section shall be construed to require a local board of education or its delegate to
